The right to information is a fundamental right. In 1976, in the Raj Narain vs the State of Uttar Pradesh case, the Supreme Court ruled that Right to information will be treated as a fundamental right under article 19 (1) of the Indian Constitution. About the RTI ACT 2005 it goes without saying that an informed citizen is better equipped to keep necessary vigil on the instruments of governance and make the government more accountable to the governed. Needless to say that doing proper use of the RTI Act 2005 by the people will speed up development and bring transparency in the administration. The Directorate General of Vigilance is the apex body under the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs for the vigilance matters. The Directorate General interfaces with the Central Vigilance Commission, the Central Bureau of Investigation, field formations of CBIC who are also having their vigilance wings.
